

2012 Kansas Statutes

76-476. Same; execution of instrument of conveyance; approval by attorney general. The conveyance made by the state board of regents of the tracts of land first described in K.S.A. 76-474 shall be made to the Kansas state university endowment association by an instrument of conveyance, executed in the name of the state board of regents by its chairperson and secretary, which has prior approval of the attorney general. Before such university lands shall be conveyed, the attorney general shall approve the instruments of conveyance of the Kansas state university endowment association lands described in K.S.A. 76-475 to the state of Kansas for the Kansas state university of agriculture and applied science and the title to such lands.

History: L. 1977, ch. 265, § 3; July 1.