

2012 Kansas Statutes

80-940. Disorganization of cemetery districts in certain townships; property transferred to township. If the board of township trustees of any township or townships located in a county having a population of more than forty-three thousand (43,000) and less than forty-eight thousand (48,000) agrees thereto, any cemetery district located in such township or townships may, with the approval of the board of directors thereof, be disorganized. Whenever the board of directors shall approve the disorganization of any such cemetery district, all books, records, papers, moneys and title to all property owned by such cemetery district shall vest in the township, and shall be maintained thereby.
