Dear Representative Cassidy:

SUBJECT: Fiscal Note for HB 2297 by House Committee on Education Budget

In accordance with KSA 75-3715a, the following fiscal note concerning HB 2297 is respectfully submitted to your committee.

HB 2297 would state that in any action challenging the adequacy of the state's suitable provision for financing the educational interests of the state, the state's burden of proof as to adequacy is satisfied by a "prima facie" (self-evident from the facts) in that funds appropriated to the State Board of Education is at least 50.0 percent of all funds appropriated from the State General Fund of the applicable year.
