

Accessibility Standards; HB 2193

HB 2193 updates a federal reference in existing state law concerning disability accessibility standards for public facilities. The change makes state law consistent with the current Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).