

13-1355. Effect of act of 1909. Nothing contained in this act shall in any way affect any appeal taken from any award heretofore made or the rights of any person relative to any lands heretofore condemned by any board of park commissioners or the award made therefor. All proceedings relative to the establishment or improvement of boulevards under the provisions of chapter 115 [*] of the Laws of 1907, heretofore had, shall be held valid and remain in full force. Neither this act nor the said act of which it is amendatory and supplemental shall be held or construed to be suspended or limited in their application or otherwise by any other statute. Cities to which said acts are applicable are required to carry out the provisions thereof, subject only to the limitations therein contained.

History: L. 1909, ch. 71, § 12; March 20; R.S. 1923, § 13-1355.
