

22-2401. Arrest by law enforcement officer. A law enforcement officer may arrest a person under any of the following circumstances:

- (a) The officer has a warrant commanding that the person be arrested.
- (b) The officer has probable cause to believe that a warrant for the person's arrest has been issued in this state or in another jurisdiction for a felony committed therein.
- (c) The officer has probable cause to believe that the person is committing or has committed:
  - (1) A felony; or
  - (2) a misdemeanor, and the law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that:
    - (A) The person will not be apprehended or evidence of the crime will be irretrievably lost unless the person is immediately arrested;
    - (B) the person may cause injury to self or others or damage to property unless immediately arrested; or
    - (C) the person has intentionally inflicted bodily harm to another person.
- (d) Any crime, except a traffic infraction or a cigarette or tobacco infraction, has been or is being committed by the person in the officer's view.
