

38-1818. Permanent families account transferred to judicial administrator of the courts. On and after July 1, 1997:

(a) Whenever the corporation for change, or words of like effect, is referred to or designated by a statute, contract or other document and such reference or designation relates to the permanent families account of the family and children investment fund, such reference or designation shall be deemed to apply to the judicial administrator of the courts.

(b) Whenever the executive director or the chairperson of the board of directors of the corporation for change, or words of like effect, is referred to or designated by a statute, contract or other document and such reference or designation refers to the permanent families account of the children and families investment fund, such reference or designation shall be deemed to apply to the judicial administrator of the courts.

(c) All orders and directives of the corporation for change or of the executive director or the chairperson of the board of directors of the corporation for change in existence on the effective date of this act which refer to the permanent families account of the children and families investment fund shall continue to be effective and shall be deemed to be orders and directives of the judicial administrator of the courts until revised, amended or nullified pursuant to law.

(d) The judicial administrator of the courts shall succeed to whatever right, title or interest the corporation for change has acquired in any real property in this state acquired with moneys from the permanent families account of the family and children investment fund prior to the effective date of this act, and the judicial administrator of the courts shall hold the same for and in the name of the state of Kansas. On and after the effective date of this act, whenever any statute, contract, deed or other document concerns the power or authority of the corporation for change or of the executive director or the chairperson of the board of directors of the corporation for change to acquire, hold or dispose of real property or any interest therein, and such power or authority relates to the permanent families account of the family and children investment fund or to real property or any interest therein acquired with moneys from such account prior to the effective date of this act, the judicial administrator of the courts shall succeed to such power or authority.
