

40-219. Failure of company to pay judgment. Whenever any insurance company shall become liable to pay any loss to any person in this state, and shall neglect or refuse for three months after final judgment to pay the same, there being no appeal pending, and no supersedeas bond filed, the company may be enjoined from doing any business in this state until the judgment is fully paid.

History: L. 1927, ch. 231, 40-219; June 1.