

60-454. Liability insurance. Evidence that a person was, at the time a harm was suffered by another, insured wholly or partially against loss arising from liability for that harm is inadmissible as tending to prove negligence or other wrongdoing.

History: L. 1963, ch. 303, 60-454; Jan. 1, 1964.