

74-5373. Construction of act. Nothing in the master's level psychology statutes shall be construed to apply to the activities and services of qualified members of other professional groups including, but not limited to, attorneys, physicians, psychologists, marriage and family therapists, professional counselors, registered nurses, social workers, rabbis, priests, ministers, or clergy persons, including Christian Science practitioners, performing services consistent with the laws of this state, their training, and the code of ethics of their profession, so long as they do not represent themselves as being a master's level psychologist.

History: L. 1996, ch. 153, § 41; July 1.