THIRTY-FIRST DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, February 23, 2016, 9:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.

Reps. Bruchman and Edmonds were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Present later: Reps. Bruchman and Edmonds

Prayer by guest chaplain, Major Chris Wallace, Deputy Division Chaplain, Fort Riley:

Heavenly Father, the sacrifices we offer to You are a broken spirit and a contrite heart. As Soldiers and as Senators we serve others, citizens of a state and of a country we love. Together we pursue democracy and freedom with equal passion. And we desire harmony between our governmental and military bodies. We ask for congressional leaders sensitive to Your wisdom and military members with the character and competence to secure national pursuits.

The Kansas Legislature has set a day to recognize the Armed Forces. So, we ask your blessing on the Department of Defense from leaders in the Pentagon to the privates at Fort Riley. Bless the missions the military is given – we audaciously ask for peace in the Middle East which would require Your good providence. We ask your guidance for our leaders who make decisions for the organization and advise beyond the military. We ask for Your protection on those who are deployed around the world, give them success and bring them home safely. And we ask Your blessing on the lives of our service members, civilian personnel and families. Grant them health and purpose.

We ask all of this for Your honor and for our good.
Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Ruiz.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Clark are spread upon the Journal:

It is my honor today to recognize these Veteran Service Organizations and the families of Veterans. Veteran Service Organizations exist to provide assistance to service members from the first days of their deployments, through the return home, and process of rehabilitation; whether it is from a physical wound or an invisible wound. Without their continued dedication and support, Veterans would not have the help they do today. Along with the support of Veteran Organizations, we also have the family members of Veterans to thank. They bear the most immediate weight when a service member deploys, returns home, or struggles in any certain way. We thank them for their dedication, patience and support to the service members. Behind me I have:

What's In Outdoors: Phil Taunton, Rue Armstrong, and TJ Orender

Patriot Outdoor Adventures: Nathan McClure

HR 6042—A RESOLUTION honoring and recognizing Kansans who are Korean War Veterans.

WHEREAS, On June 25, 1950, communist North Korea invaded the Republic of Korea with approximately 135,000 troops, thereby initiating the Korean War; and

WHEREAS, On June 27, 1950, President Harry S. Truman ordered the United States Armed Forces to help the Republic of Korea defend itself against the North Korean invasion; and

WHEREAS, The hostilities ended in a cease-fire, marked by the signing of the armistice at Panmunjom on July 27, 1953; and

WHEREAS, During the Korean War, approximately 1,789,000 members of the United States Armed Forces served in the theater of combat, with 54,246 casualties, of whom 33,739 were battle deaths, more than 103,284 wounded and approximately 8,055 listed as missing in action or prisoners of war; and

WHEREAS, The Korean War is called "The Forgotten War," because it came on the heels of World War II; and

WHEREAS, The invasion from North Korea, planned and executed with Russian support, was intended to ensure communism spread into the Republic of Korea and beyond; and

WHEREAS, The Kansans and other Americans who served in the armed forces during the Korean War were willing to pay the price freedom demanded and pushed back the spread of communism to sustain democracy in Korea; and

WHEREAS, In the 66 years since the outbreak of the Korean War, the Republic of Korea has emerged from a war-torn economy into one of the major economies in the world and one of the largest trading partners and military allies of the United States; and

WHEREAS, There were 435 Kansans who lost their lives in the Korean War. Their names and branch of service are listed on the Korean War Memorial in Overland Park, Kansas; and service and sacrifice of these Kansas veterans now, while they are still with us, as well as other veterans of the United States Armed Forces and all veterans from allied countries who served in Korea; that all Americans, in particular Kansans, who served during the Korean War were valuable to the war effort – whether as cooks, tankers, engineers, enlisted personnel or officers – and all deserve our thanks and recognition; and we encourage all Kansans to participate in commemorative activities, pay solemn tribute to and never forget the veterans of the Korean War and their sacrifices, as exemplified by the Kansas Commission on Veterans' Affairs Operation Recognition Program, which grants high school diplomas to Korean War and other veterans who left high school to serve in the armed forces; and we reaffirm this commitment of Kansans from this day forward; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to Representative Goico.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Goico are spread upon the Journal:

I am honored to be standing here before you with Thomas Tschantz, representing his father who was a veteran in the Korean War and a crew member of mine during Desert Storm, Mark Sweeney.

First I want to recognize all the present and former members of the military that are here, please stand. This includes veterans in the gallery.

Thank you for your noble service and sacrifices for our country.

Four-hundred and thirty-five (435) Kansans lost their life during the Korean War. There were three (3) Kansans who were awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor – Stanley Taylor Adams, Army, DeSoto, Kansas; Jack Arden Davenport, USMC, Mission, Kansas; and Father Emil Joseph Kapaun, Army, Pilsen, Kansas.

This resolution honors and recognizes all veterans who served during the Korean War, especially all the Kansans.

The Korean War is known as the forgotten War because it came soon after World War II. However, in the fight for freedom, this War was as important as WWII.

This was a war triggered by Russian plans for expansion. Today, it shows the difference between living with communism versus living with freedom. You can see it by comparing North Korea and South Korea.

Today, South Korea is one of the major economies of the world. This divided country shows the contrast between a bloody communist dictatorship in the North and the hope and opportunities of freedom in the South.

Even though the Korean War happened sixty-six (66) years ago, today we still have the threat of this Russian plans to build a world empire. We see this in the news every day.

Veterans, we will never forget what you did. Your service provided freedom to people threatened with being slaves to communism. I can give you an example of my own personal life. I was born in Cuba. In Cuba like in North Korea, there is no freedom of assembly or religion. We cannot get together like we are here right now. There is no freedom of speech. If I were to say this speech in public, in a communist country like Cuba, I would be tortured and killed.

This is what happens today under communist regimes. For some unexplained reason the news media forgets to document the atrocities that communist regimes perpetrate on their people.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

On emergency motion of Rep. K. Jones, HR 6043, by Rep. Jones, as follows, was introduced and adopted:

HR 6043—A RESOLUTION recognizing Norman Holle for his work in helping veterans with PTSD.

WHEREAS, Norman Holle has assisted numerous veterans in receiving the aid they need for Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder, or PTSD; and

WHEREAS, Many cases of PTSD remain unreported, undiagnosed and untreated due to a lack of awareness about PTSD and the persistent stigma associated with mental health conditions. PTSD significantly increases the risk of anxiety, depression, suicide, homelessness and drug- and alcohol-related disorders and deaths, especially when left untreated. Veterans deployed multiple times to combat zones often suffer the severest PTSD symptoms; and

WHEREAS, Numerous veterans suffering from PTSD have had their disability claims fail due to improper preparation or documentation. For the last 15 years, Norman Holle has conducted a weekly class to teach veterans who suffer from trauma ways to navigate the Veterans Administration's application process for the successful filing of PTSD disability claims. To date, Norman has helped 838 veterans suffering from severe PTSD receive 100% disability compensation and countless others receive some disability compensation and care through the Veterans Administration; and

WHEREAS, Norman Holle is a Vietnam veteran who served the United States Army in multiple roles, including Crew Chief, Loadmaster, First Aid Attendant, Door Gunner and Maintenance Crew Member. During his military career, Norman spent over 1,200 hours in the air in U-1A Otters. Norman was awarded numerous medals for his service, including an Air Medal with four Oak Leaf Clusters. Norman has been married to his wife, Carolyn, for 32 years: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we recognize Norman Holle for his work in helping veterans with PTSD; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send an enrolled copy of this resolution to Norman Holle.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. K. Jones are spread upon the Journal:

It is my pleasure today to talk to you about a great Kansan, Norman Holle. He is a Viet Nam veteran. He was a Crew Chief with the United States Army with over 1200 hours in the air on U1A Otter and also filled roles as Loadmaster, First Aid, Door Gunner, and of course Maintenance. He has medals from service in Viet Nam plus an Air Medal with 4 Oak Leaf Clusters.

Now, you might be expecting a fascinating combat story which could probably be told, but really Norman is a perfect picture of laying down one's own life for others. He is a soldier that helps soldiers and their families day-in-and-day-out. He appreciates the military every day.

Norman selflessly volunteers help to veterans from all wars to receive the help they need for Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) and has done so for the last 15 years. He holds a class every Tuesday in order to teach veterans who suffer from trauma what to file and how to talk to the VA. Whether this trauma be by combat, sexual trauma, handling the wounded/dead on the battlefield, he helps them all.

While there is no cure for PTSD, these veterans receive the medical and mental help so that they can be productive members of society, learning how to deal with issues such as shopping in a grocery store, going to a movie, and leaving their safe place.

Norman has been married to his bride Carolyn for 32 years. To date he has had 838 veterans successfully received 100% disability due to PTSD as well as assisted in countless others receiving some disability and care by the VA.

Please join me in honoring Norman and all he does for veterans and their families.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: Six years ago the state spent $2 million refurbishing the Docking Power Plant. Then the Republican Governor and Republican Legislature decided to remove the state agencies from the building and tear it down. Now the Governor enters into a lease purchase for a new power plant at a cost of $20 million without a statutory cost/benefit analysis.

This spending of tens of millions of dollars by the administration and the lack of good fiscal oversight by the Legislature is a symptom of the greater economic mismanagement and incompetence that has plagued the state budget over the last five years. I vote no on SB 250. – HENRY HELGERSON

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: Alzheimer's is more than a disease affecting someone's brain. It is actually a story of trial and tribulation that consists of a family losing a loved one through a process that can test the inner spirit of everyone affected. It is a story that encompasses so many areas of inner struggle for the family members who must experience a loved one losing their recognition and cognitive skills. It is a story of dedication and learning to cling to the memories of your loved one for as long as you can.

I want to thank Jennifer Nauertc for inspiring this bill. Thus, I vote yes on Sub HB 2473. – PEGGY MAST
