

2016 Kansas Statutes

9-910. Dividends from capital stock prohibited; how current dividends paid. No dividends shall be paid from the capital stock account of a bank or trust company. The current dividends of any bank or trust company shall be paid from undivided profits after deducting losses. These losses are determined by using generally accepted accounting principles at the time of making the dividend.

History: L. 1947, ch. 102, § 23; L. 1989, ch. 48, § 22; L. 1990, ch. 55, § 1; L. 2015, ch. 38, § 41; July 1.