

2016 Kansas Statutes

17-5534. Same; obligations continued and vesting of property title. All such conversions are hereby ratified and confirmed and all of the obligations of such an association which has so converted shall continue as valid and subsisting obligations of such federal savings and loan association and the title to all of the property of such association shall be deemed to have continued and vested, as of the date of the issuance of such federal charter, in such federal savings and loan association, as fully and completely as if such conversion had taken place since the enactment of this act pursuant to this section.

History: L. 1943, ch. 133, § 112; July 1.