

2016 Kansas Statutes

33-101. Trusts. All gifts and conveyances of goods and chattels, made in trust to the use of the person or persons making the same shall, to the full extent of both the corpus and income made in trust to such use, be void and of no effect, regardless of motive, as to all past, present or future creditors; but otherwise shall be valid and effective.

History: G.S. 1868, ch. 43, § 1; R.S. 1923, 33-101; L. 1949, ch. 274, § 1; June 30.