

2016 Kansas Statutes

58-506. Same (doctrine of worthier title). In the case of a will to heirs, or to next of kin of the testator, or to a person an heir or next of kin, the common-law doctrine of worthier title is abolished and the devisees or devisee shall take under the will and not by descent.

History: L. 1939, ch. 181, § 6; July 1.