

2016 Kansas Statutes

59-2283. Joinder of administration; separate proceedings, when. The district court, for good cause shown, may permit said proceedings to be separated and separate petitions filed and docketed for the probate or administration of any estate, and if notice has been previously given and approved by the court, each of said estates shall be proceeded in without further notice.

History: L. 1947, ch. 316, § 3; L. 1976, ch. 242, § 42; Jan. 10, 1977.