

2016 Kansas Statutes

60-438. Admissibility of disclosure wrongfully compelled. Evidence of a statement or other disclosure is inadmissible against the holder of the privilege if the judge finds that he or she had and claimed a privilege to refuse to make the disclosure but was nevertheless required to make it.

History: L. 1963, ch. 303, 60-438; Jan. 1, 1964.