

2016 Kansas Statutes

74-715. Same; workmen's compensation fee fund; disposition of moneys received by director. There is hereby created in the state treasury a fund to be called the workmen's compensation fee fund. The workers compensation director shall remit all moneys received by or for such director from fees, charges or penalties which prior to the effective date of this act was required by law to be credited to the workmen's compensation fee fund to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury. Ten percent of each such deposit shall be credited to the state general fund and the balance shall be credited to the workmen's compensation fee fund. All expenditures from the workmen's compensation fee fund shall be made in accordance with appropriation acts upon warrants of the director of accounts and reports issued pursuant to vouchers approved by the workmen's compensation director or by a person or persons designated by the director.
