

2016 Kansas Statutes

75-4714. Fees for telecommunications services; disposition; information technology fund. Except as otherwise provided by law and subject to the provisions of appropriations acts relating thereto, all fees and charges imposed by the executive chief information technology officer for telecommunications services provided or contracted for by the executive chief information technology officer shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the information technology fund.

History: L. 1985, ch. 285, § 2; L. 1988, ch. 345, § 5; L. 2013, ch. 62, § 26; July 1.