FOURTEENTH DAY

---

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Friday, January 26, 2018, 8:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.

The roll was called with 28 senators present.

Senators Baumgardner, Doll, Fitzgerald, Longbine, Lynn, Masterson, Olson, Pilcher-Cook, Pyle, Skubal, Sykes and Wilborn were excused.

Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Heavenly Father once again, the week end is upon us. Time to break from the concerns of the dome and time to turn to the concerns of home.

Your Word says, in 1 John 4:8, that You are characterized by love. And the way we show our knowledge of You is to display that same character. So, this weekend, help us to show others that we do know You.

As this day progresses, even before we leave this place, give us opportunities to be like You. Teach us to be loving and gracious to those that differ from us...to those that don't accept our position. Help us to see, that even when we disagree, we're not to be disagreeable. Let our attitudes not be offensive.

Lord, You know our love temperature...whether we're warm or a little chilly. So, wherever it's needed, give us an attitude adjustment. Give us a desire for empathy over sympathy. Bestow upon us the longing to try walking in someone else's shoes.

Let the love that flows from You flow through. While we represent different positions and take different stands on issues, let it be said that under this dome, and at home, when it came to showing love and compassion, we were the "Real McCoy."

Thanks for Your love and compassion. In Jesus' name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.
