

2018 Kansas Statutes

75-3779. Same; preservation of civil rights of action and proceedings; criminal actions preserved.

(a) No suit, action, or other proceeding, judicial or administrative, lawfully commenced, or which could have been commenced, pertaining to any power, duty or function which is transferred to and conferred and imposed upon the secretary of administration under the provisions of this act, by or against any state agency mentioned in this act, or by or against any officer of the state in his or her official capacity or in relation to the discharge of official duties, shall abate by reason of the taking effect of reorganization under the provisions of this act. The court shall allow any such suit, action, or other proceeding to be maintained by or against the successor of any such state agency, or any officer affected.

(b) No criminal action commenced or which could have been commenced by the state shall abate by the taking effect of this act.

History: L. 1978, ch. 330, § 4; July 1.