

Journal of the House

TWENTY-FIFTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Monday, February 18, 2019, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Finch in the chair.

The roll was called with 121 members present.

Reps. Bishop, Murnan, Stogsdill and Warfield were excused on verified illness.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Faithful and loving God, today as we begin a new work week and celebrate “Presidents’ Day,” I pray a prayer of a former President. His words spoken to You then, still ring true today.

“...we bow our heads and thank You for Your love. Accept our thanks for the peace that yields this day and the shared faith that makes its continuance likely. Make us strong to do Your work, willing to heed and hear Your will, and write on our hearts these words:

'Use power to help people.'

For we are given power not to advance our own purposes, nor to make a great show in the world, nor a name. There is but one just use of power, and it is to serve people. Help us to remember it, Lord.”

(Inaugural address, January 20, 1989 – President George H. Bush)

We continue to pray for Rep. Lewis. Thank you for your faithfulness to him and Susan during this difficult time. Please be with Rep. Vickrey and his family in the death of his father-in-law. We know your grace and comfort can be sufficient in this time.

In Christ’s Name I pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Landwehr.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Lewis are spread upon the Journal:

Accompanying me today is my beautiful bride of some 40 years, my wife Susan. She is also my “Chief of Staff” - not much salary goes with that but what a great title! Our son, Joshua, is also here today. Our daughter, son-in-law and their family are in the process of moving back to Kansas.

What I'm about to share I do so only that it may in some way be an encouragement to you. Proverbs 19:21 "Many are the plans of a man's heart but it is the Lord's purpose that prevails." That certainly speaks of where my heart was Christmas Morning 2018 . . .but I am getting ahead of my story.

The afternoon of Christmas Eve, Susan, myself and our golden retriever, Zoe, departed for Kansas City to spend Christmas with our son. Christmas morning, I took Zoe downstairs for her morning walk. After returning upstairs I began having problems with my vision, became lightheaded and unstable on my feet. I told Susan what was going on and that I was headed downstairs while I could still get there on my own. Susan came down and I told her I didn't know what was happening but I thought we should go to a medical facility. Susan called our son. We went by and picked him up and he told us which hospital to go to due to a short wait time. It was a God thing that we ended up at that medical facility which turned out to be a trauma center for strokes, which also means they have a good neurological team. They thought I was having a stroke but after an MRI, it showed I had a mass on the right side of my brain.

It wasn't long ago in this House that we passed a Telemedicine Bill that became law. Many of you were here at that time. We thought we had accomplished a great thing for rural health care when in fact we had greatly benefited both rural and urban healthcare. Christmas Day as I sat in the middle of Kansas City at a major medical facility, thanks to Telemedicine I found myself speaking to a doctor in Denver, CO. From time to time we do get some things right in the Statehouse.

The mass in my head turned out to be a glioblastoma, high grade level IV, which is a cancerous brain tumor that grows exponentially . . . But that is OK. I know this tumor cannot defeat my God nor His plan of salvation for me and you.

At this point I have had 3 craniotomies and am currently taking chemotherapy and radiation.

Philippians 4:7 talks about a peace that transcends all understanding. I can testify to this truth. God has granted me a great peace with all that has occurred and at times even a JOY which I know comes from my relationship with Him.

My parting advice to you is to enjoy each day, enjoy your family, your friends, your fellow legislators. . . but do not take yourself too seriously.

Serve your District with a servant's heart.

- This is the House of Representatives.
- This is not. . .this is not the house of self interest.
- This is not the house of special interest.
- This is the People's House; long may it serve the People and this Great State of Kansas.

It has been an honor to have known and worked with many of you. Though being a legislator was never on my bucket list, reflecting back, this has been a great honor and experience, one which I am glad I did not miss. Susan and I wish to thank all of you for the many phone calls, cards, emails, texts, visits, even help moving offices. But we especially want to thank you for your prayers.

It has become clearly apparent to me that I cannot represent and serve my District and the people of my District at the level they so deserve. Therefore, I am tendering my resignation as State Representative of the 113th Kansas House District effective Friday, February 22, 2019.

Thank you, body, for your indulgence. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Adam Smith and Rep. Hibbard are spread upon the Journal:

This past September, the Kansas State Fair hosted the eighth annual Legislative Showmanship in cooperation with Kansas 4-H and FFA. Sponsored by the Kansas Fairs & Festivals Association, this is a friendly competition among state legislators and distinguished guests of who can demonstrate the best skills and talent for exhibiting a livestock animal. Participating legislators are paired with a youth livestock exhibitor from his or her respective legislative district, or as close as possible. The selected 4-H and FFA exhibitors provide an animal for competition and offer a crash course on how to present the exhibit in the show arena. At the conclusion of the tutorial, each legislator heads to the show arena with the animal along with their 4-H and FFA coaches for assurance and guidance for the competition.

This past year, legislators had the opportunity to exhibit top-quality beef animals that were the result of months of hard work and dedication by their 4-H and FFA members. The advice and expertise these members provided legislators was second-to-none. As winner of the 2017 legislative showmanship competition, I am pleased to introduce the following youth who assisted with providing this fantastic experience this past fall:

Cally Miller	Clay Pelton	Josey Schmidt
Scuyler Zenger	Kristin Isle	Haydon Schaaf
Brody Nemecek

I would also like to recognize the 2018 legislative showmanship champion – Representative Larry Hibbard from District 13. This competition is open to all legislators, so watch for your invitation this coming August to participate in an afternoon of working with Kansas’ next generation of leaders. It will be an experience you’ll never forget!

Members of the Kansas House of Representatives – please join me in welcoming these 4-H and FFA participants in the Legislative Showmanship program and congratulating them on a job well-done!

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Hoffman are spread upon the Journal:

During the week of February 16-23, the Kansas Future Farmers of America Association (FFA) is celebrating 91 years of FFA. This FFA week embraces more than 90 years of FFA traditions while looking forward to the organization’s future. More than 9,700 Kansas members will participate in National FFA week activities at local, state and national levels. These members have a passion for agriculture, Kansas’ largest industry. Our programs are found in both rural and urban areas of Kansas with chapters being located in or very near the cities of Colby, Garden City, Hays, Hutchinson, Lawrence, Manhattan, Newton, Pittsburg, Salina, Topeka and Wichita. FFA members can be found in 103 of the 105 counties across Kansas.

Look around, you will see FFA members volunteering for a cause, promoting hunger-awareness initiatives and educating the public about premier leadership, personal growth and career success they are experiencing because of their involvement in Agricultural Education & FFA.

Over 90 years, agricultural education, the National FFA Organization and the Kansas FFA Association have grown and adapted with the changing times so as to aid members in continuing to be career ready and successful for a lifetime. Programming continues to be adjusted and developed to remain relevant in today's society by expanding agricultural opportunities encompassing science, business and technology, in addition to production farming and ranching.

The Kansas FFA Association is led by the state officer team - six students who are all currently attending Kansas State University.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks by Rep. Dietrich are spread upon the Journal:

It is my honor to introduce you to a truly outstanding group of teachers and administrators from Washburn Rural High School right here in Topeka who received the award for the 2018 National Performing Arts School of Excellence. This award is given to only one

School in the nation each year. The performing arts award encompasses band, orchestra, vocal music, art, theater, dance, speech and debate.

Performing arts are such a valuable part of a student's education. It requires a huge commitment of both time and motivation on a student's part to embrace the performing arts aspect of their high school experience. It teaches them discipline, time management, the value of practice making something perfect, and then the absolute joy of finding success in all of that hard work.

Performing arts programming increases a student's confidence, teaches them how to think creatively, analyze complex issues, convey their thought and emotions in distinctive ways, collaborate with others to achieve something great and it all ends up enriching not only their school experience, but their future success as a thriving, happy, contributing adult.

I would like to introduce the performing arts teachers at Washburn Rural High School and the administrators who are here with me today and to say, "Thank you," for making a positive difference in the lives of your students.

Mr. Speaker and fellow Representatives, I present to you:

- Luke Chaffee: Director of Bands
