

Journal of the Senate

THIRD DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
 Wednesday, January 16, 2019, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
 The roll was called with 40 senators present.
 Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Lord, once again I thank You for this privilege of praying for Your people.
 We're Liberals and Conservatives. We're Democrats and Republicans; Men and Women...Pro and Con; and in so many other ways, we're just plain different. And with all our differences, we're like magnets. We can attract or repel, depending on which side is showing.

The "Dream" that Dr. M. L. King shared with us, had to do with viewing one another based on the content of their character. The problem is that too often, because of our differences, we're prone to show the wrong side...a repulsive, unloving side. It's a side that we do try to contain, but sometimes we just let it show.

Lord, when someone differs from us...when they oppose us...when they're getting on our last nerve, remind us of Your words in Matthew 22:37-39, that even when we don't feel like it, we're to show love for that neighbor. You want us to show them the side that You have been showing to us; the side of love and compassion; the side of patience.

Lord, as we strive to serve Your people, even as we have times of disagreement, help us to show each other our pleasant, attractive sides. I pray in the name of Jesus, the Christ. Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.
