State of Protection:
Helping people recover
from the unexpected

At State Farm, being a good neighbor is not just a slogan—it's a way of doing business. State Farm agents and employees are dedicated to keeping promises and being there for customers when they need us most.

Each year, State Farm pays millions of dollars in claims to Kansans who sustain covered losses to their cars and homes, or suffer accidental injuries.

State of Hope: Giving back to our communities

Through the State Farm Foundation and Good Neighbor Citizenship Program®, State Farm supports charitable programs that help build safer, stronger, and better educated communities across Kansas.

Local communities also benefit from our purchase of municipal bonds. Municipal bonds help communities raise money for projects that benefit the public. By investing in Kansas, State Farm is helping improve the quality of life for all Kansans.

State of Responsibility: Paying our fair share

State Farm believes it is important to be a good corporate citizen and we do this in a number of ways. From paying our fair share of premium, real estate and business personal property taxes to investing in municipal bonds to benefit public projects, to working with regulators and policy makers, we accept responsibility for where and how we do business.
