

2020 Kansas Statutes

12-306. Joint session; adjournment; vote requirement. Said joint session may be adjourned from time to time, until the business for which it is assembled is completed. On all preliminary questions a majority of those present and voting shall be sufficient, but on the final passage of the joint ordinance there must be a majority of all the councilmen-elect of each city voting in the affirmative, to give such ordinance validity.

History: L. 1887, ch. 112, § 6; R.S. 1923, § 12-306; L. 1968, ch. 366, § 2; July 1.