

2020 Kansas Statutes

25-2432. Forfeiture of office or employment upon conviction. Upon final conviction of any person of any offense specified in this act, such person shall forfeit any public office or public employment which he may hold in addition to any other penalties imposed for such offense.

History: L. 1974, ch. 157, § 26; July 1.