

2020 Kansas Statutes

27-123. Same; state retention of concurrent jurisdiction. The state of Kansas retains concurrent jurisdiction, both civil and criminal, with the United States over all lands affected by this act.

History: L. 1985, ch. 126, § 4; July 1.