

2020 Kansas Statutes

39-1206. Rehabilitation facilities defined. Rehabilitation facilities shall be those which conduct a program of rehabilitation for individuals whose earning capacity is impaired by age, or physical or mental deficiency, or injury, or cultural deprivation, or emotional instability. These programs may provide remunerative employment or other occupational evaluation and training for educational or therapeutic activities. The half-way house may or may not be affiliated with a rehabilitation facility.

History: L. 1969, ch. 227, § 6; July 1.