

2020 Kansas Statutes

46-216. "Compensation" defined. "Compensation" means any money, thing of value, or economic benefit conferred on, or received by, any person in return for services rendered, or to be rendered, by such person or another.

History: L. 1974, ch. 353, § 2; March 28.