

2020 Kansas Statutes

60-481. Journalist privilege. Except as provided in K.S.A. 2020 Supp. 60-482, and amendments thereto, a journalist cannot be adjudged in contempt by a judicial, legislative, administrative body or any other body having the power to issue subpoenas, for refusing to disclose, in any state or local proceeding, any information or the source of any such information procured while acting as a journalist.

History: L. 2010, ch. 114, § 2; July 1.