Trinity has blessed my family tremendously. I resigned from my full time facility and joined Trinity for the flexibility they offer. As a mom of 11, it is so important for me to be able to attend my children's events. Trinity allows me to do that with self scheduling. The wages are also competitive and was a very beneficial financial increase for my family. This past November I was blessed with a contract paying almost double my base pay. I love that Trinity is Christ centered and it truly reflects in the staffing. I am also honored to be able to go out and help various facilities in need while also gaining experience and knowledge. Most of all, I am grateful for the smile on my children's faces when I am able to show up for an event or provide something they've been hoping for. Trinity is truly a God send and I wouldn't want to work through any other employer.
