

2021 Kansas Statutes

45-304a. Journal entries referring to vetoed bills. Whenever the governor shall veto a bill and such bill is to be referred to in the journal of the house of representatives or the journal of the senate, it shall be sufficient to refer to the same by its house or senate bill number, except that the entries which report veto messages shall carry the entire title of the enrolled bill. In no case shall the full text of a bill be entered in the journal of either the house or the senate.
