

2021 Kansas Statutes

46-1402. Same; duty of governor to call special session, when. Whenever the governor receives petitions, in the form provided in K.S.A. 46-1401, properly executed by two-thirds of the members elected to each house of the legislature, petitioning him to call the legislature into special session at a particular time, and all being at the same particular time, he shall call the petitioned for special session to commence at the time so specified.

History: L. 1974, ch. 212, § 2; July 1.