

2021 Kansas Statutes

75-3347. Same; duty of secretary; reason for conveyance. The instruments of conveyance quitclaiming, releasing and remising the real estate described in K.S.A. 75-3346, and amendments thereto, shall be executed in the name of the secretary for children and families. The secretary shall execute the quitclaim deed for the reason that such real estate is no longer needed or used for purposes which existed on the date the United States of America, grantor, conveyed such real estate and appurtenances to the Kansas department for children and families.

History: L. 1975, ch. 444, § 2; L. 2014, ch. 115, § 334; July 1.