

2021 Kansas Statutes

75-3749. State department of civil service; transfer of powers and duties of. On July 1, 1953, all of the powers, duties, authority and jurisdiction now exercised and imposed by law upon the state department of civil service as to the old-age and survivors insurance for public employees under sections 40-2302 to 40-2309, both sections inclusive, of the General Statutes Supplement of 1951 are hereby transferred to and imposed upon the controller under the supervision of the executive director of the state department of administration, subject to the approval of the state finance council of any rules and regulations established or promulgated thereunder in the manner as required under K.S.A. 75-3706.

History: L. 1953, ch. 375, § 49; July 1.