

2021 Kansas Statutes

79-1113. National banking associations and banks and corporations holding stock therein; exemption from intangibles tax. Shares, shares of stock or other evidence of ownership of national banking associations and banks located or doing business within the state, and all income therefrom and the shares, shares of stock or other evidence of ownership of corporations holding stock of a national banking association or bank located or doing business in Kansas, to the extent the income of such corporation is attributable to dividends received on such stock, and all income therefrom, shall be exempt from the tax imposed on moneys, notes and other evidences of debt by K.S.A. 79-3109 and any amendments thereof.

History: L. 1963, ch. 463, § 8; L. 1970, ch. 390, § 2; July 1.