

Journal of the House

TWENTY-SECOND DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Wednesday, February 8, 2012, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker O'Neal in the chair.

The roll was called with 125 members present.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Chairman Steve Ortiz, of Mayetta, and guest of Rep. Victors:

Bosho – Legislators
Today we call on the Creator to Bless this day, our families, elders, veterans, and children.
May the Creator guide you to look out for the needs of our people and Indian nations in Kansas.
May the Creator enlighten your decision making as you deal with the issues of the State.
Creator, bless us all with your compassion.
God bless the State of Kansas, the United States of America and its native peoples.
Megwich.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Victors.

Kansas Trivia Question – Although Harold Ross and Jane Grant, the married founders of a national magazine, targeted it specifically at people who were not from Dubuque, Iowa, Grant may have had in mind the Kansans in her home town of Girard. What is the name of Ross and Grant's magazine that was not for little old ladies?

Answer: The New Yorker

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Crum are spread upon the Journal:

It is a great pleasure to introduce the 2011 Class 4A Champion Rose Hill Football team. The Rockets under the direction of head coach, Greg Slade, went 13 and 1 and wrapped up it's first state football championship in fine fashion with a shut-out over Eudora 21 to 0 in the championship game.

The Rockets demonstrated great team work all season and learned that hard work and dedication can result in success.

Rep. Crum presented a framed House certificate to the team.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Victors are spread upon the Journal:

Today, I invited the Kansas Native American tribes, businesses, organizations and Haskell University for the 1st Annual Native American day at the Kansas state capitol. I believe this day is important to help raise issues about Native Americans at the state level. This day will help serve as a reminder of the relationship between the state and its tribal communities and to strengthen our government to government relationships. I hope to continue this tradition in order to take an opportunity to celebrate and honor the history, customs, cultures, and traditions of the tribes of the great state of Kansas. Now, I would like to introduce the tribal chairmen of the Kansas tribes and present them with a certificate and a traditional Native American blanket for appreciation of the work they do for their tribes. Now let me introduce our guests, Prairie band of Potawatomi Nation, Chairman Steve Ortiz: Kickapoo Nation of Kansas, Chairman Steve Cadue: Sac & Fox Nation, Chairman Mike Dougherty, and representation from the Iowa tribe of Kansas and Nebraska, and the Kaw Nation.

Now let me leave you with a quote from my very great grandfather, Chief Standing Bear of the Ponca tribe, who was the first Native American to be successful in U.S. District Court in 1879, which granted "Native Americans are persons within the meaning of the law." In 1879, the trial drew to a close; the judge announced that Chief Standing Bear would be allowed to make a speech in his own behalf. Raising his right hand, Chief Standing Bear proceeded to speak. Among his words were, "This hand is not the color of yours, but if I prick it, the blood will flow, and I shall feel pain," said Standing Bear. "The blood is of the same color as yours. God made me, and I am a man." Therefore, the law should protect and give the same rights to Native Americans.

Rep. Victors presented framed House certificates and a traditional Native American blanket to the representatives from each tribe.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Announcing passage of SB 300.

The Senate nonconcurrs in House amendments to H Sub for SB 191, requests a conference and has appointed Senators Ostmeyer, McGinn and Francisco as conferees on the part of the Senate.

INTRODUCTION OF SENATE BILLS AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

The following Senate bill was introduced and read by title:

SB 300.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was introduced and read by title:

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. HR 6010--

By Representative Trimmer

A RESOLUTION requesting that the United States Department of Labor continue to exempt young persons under the age of 16 from the provisions of child labor laws when the work is farm related.

WHEREAS, It has been a long tradition in American agriculture that young people under 16 years of age have helped on the farm; and

WHEREAS, Many of these young people are members of a family helping to support a family farm; and

WHEREAS, The number of agriculturally related accidents among youngsters under the age of 16 working on a farm is no greater than the number of accidents involving youngsters under the age of 16 which occur on the highway or in other youth-related activities; and

WHEREAS, Prohibiting youngsters under the age of 16 from working on farms would have a severely negative impact on many farm family incomes; and

WHEREAS, The tradition of children of farm families working on the family farm not only strengthens the family unit, but it also builds character in the children which serves them well in later life; and

WHEREAS, Prohibiting youngsters under the age of 16 from working on farms would place some farm families in an extremely difficult position by having to choose between violating the law while preserving a long-standing and highly cherished agricultural tradition or following the law to the detriment of the farm family and the family farm: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we urge the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Labor to make no changes in the current laws or regulations regarding child labor which would disrupt or have a detrimental effect on agriculture and the ability of children under the age of 16 to work on a farm; and

Be it further resolved: That copies of this resolution be provided to Hilda L. Solis, Secretary of the U. S. Department of Labor and to the Kansas congressional delegation.
