

Journal of the Senate

SIXTY-SEVENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Friday, May 11, 2012, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Stephen Morris.
The roll was called with thirty-nine senators present.
Senator Taddiken was excused.
Invocation by Chaplain Fred S. Hollomon:

Heavenly Father,

As a pastor and a preacher and a Sunday School teacher and then a Chaplain, I've had to spend a lot of time in public speaking, and I learned a lot from the book of James in the Bible on how to avoid saying inappropriate things.

These are excerpts from the book of James as translated in the Bible in Contemporary Language.

James 3:3-9: "A bit in the mouth of a horse controls the whole horse.....

A word of your mouth may seem of no account, but it can accomplish nearly anything—or destroy it.....A careless or wrongly placed word out of your mouth can do that. By our speech we can rule the world, turn harmony to chaos, throw mud on a reputation, send the whole world up in smoke with it....You can tame a tiger, but you can't tame a tongue---it's never been done. The tongue runs wild, a wanton killer. With our tongue we bless God our Father; with the same tongues we curse the very men and women He made in His image. Curses and blessings out of the same mouth! "My friends, this can't go on."

This excerpt from the Bible shows me what constructive or careless results can come from the same mouth. I close this prayer with one suggestion to myself and everyone else: "Don't say anything today that you will regret tomorrow!"

I pray in the Name of Jesus Christ, AMEN

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Stephen Morris.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: H Sub for SB 79 emphasizes that all court decisions in Kansas are based on US Constitutional Law and also based on Kansas Constitutional Law. This bill is NOT a bill of intolerance. On the contrary, this bill emphasizes that court decisions shall not infringe on the rights and freedoms embodied in our US and Kansas Law.

This vote is actually a vote for the maintaining of American laws for American courts. — STEVE ABRAMS

Senators Apple, Bruce, Kelsey, Love, Lynn, Masterson, Merrick, Olson, Ostmeyer, Petersen, Pilcher-Cook, Pyle and Wagle request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Abrams on H Sub for SB 79.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote "NO" on H Sub for SB 79. It is already clear in the law that courts must uphold the constitutions of the United States and the State of Kansas and this bill does nothing to enhance the long established basis for our laws. An amendment was added by the conference committee to protect business interests: "Without prejudice to any legal right, this act shall not apply to a corporation, association, partnership, limited liability company, limited liability partnership or other legal entity that contracts to subject itself to foreign law or courts in a jurisdiction other than this state or the United States." If the legislature is intending to fully recognize the right to contract freely under the laws of this state, I believe that it should recognize that right in the same way for individuals as it does for businesses. — MARCI FRANCISCO

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: I vote to "Pass" on H Sub for SB 79. Having signed the Conference Committee which brings this issue to the Senate for final action now, I feel it would be hypocritical for me to now vote against it despite my serious misgivings, due to subsequent testimony received, as to either its' necessity or its' respect for longstanding rules of comedy under Kansas and international law(s). — DAVID HALEY

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. PRESIDENT: As explained House Substitute for Senate Bill 79 in its language basically reiterates what is protected by both the Kansas and U.S. Constitution that no U.S. Citizen or resident shall be denied the liberties, rights, and privileges guaranteed in our Constitutional Republic. It also states that this Act does not prevent any person from exercising his or her right to freedom of religion and worship. As such, Mr. President, I vote Aye on this Bill since it only reinforces what our courts and legal system is already sworn to uphold. That too is what I have sworn to defend and uphold. Thank-You, Mr. President. – ALLEN C. SCHMIDT

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT

MR. PRESIDENT and MR. SPEAKER: Your committee on conference on House amendments to House Substitute for SB 160 submits the following report:

The Senate accedes to all House amendments to the bill, and your committee on conference further agrees to amend the bill as printed as House Substitute for Senate Bill No.160, as follows:

On page 1, by striking all in lines 6 through 36;

On page 2, by striking all in lines 1 through 13 and inserting:

"Section 1. K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 23-3103 is hereby amended to read as follows: follows: 23-3103. (a) Any new or modified order for support shall include a provision for the withholding of income to enforce the order for support.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (j), (k) or (l), all new or modified orders for support shall provide for immediate issuance of an income withholding order. The income withholding order shall be issued without further notice to the obligor and shall specify an amount sufficient to satisfy the order for support and to defray any arrearage. The income withholding order shall be issued regardless of whether a payor subject to the jurisdiction of this state can be identified at the time the order for support is entered.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection or subsections (j) or (l), if no income withholding order is in effect to enforce the support order, an income withholding order shall be issued by the court upon request of the obligee or public office, provided that the obligor accrued an arrearage equal to or greater than the amount of support payable for one month and the requirements of subsections (d) and (h) have been met. The income withholding order shall be issued without further notice to the obligor and shall specify an amount sufficient to satisfy the order for support and to defray any arrearage. The income withholding order shall be issued regardless of whether a payor subject to the jurisdiction of this state can be identified at the time the income withholding order is issued.

(d) Not less than seven days after the obligee or public office has served a notice pursuant to subsection (h), the obligee or public office may initiate income withholding pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2).

(1) The obligee or public office may apply for an income withholding order by filing with the court an affidavit stating: (A) The date that the notice was served on the obligor and the manner of service; (B) that the obligor has not filed a motion to stay issuance of the income withholding order or, if a motion to stay has been filed, the reason an income withholding order must be issued immediately; (C) a specified amount to be withheld by the payor to satisfy the order of support and to defray any arrearage; (D) whether the income withholding order is to include a medical withholding order; and (E) that the amount of the arrearage as of the date the notice to the obligor was prepared was equal to or greater than the amount of support payable for one month. In addition to any other penalty provided by law, the filing of such an affidavit with knowledge of the falsity of a material declaration is punishable as a contempt.

Upon the filing of the affidavit, the income withholding order shall be issued without further notice to the obligor, hearing or amendments of the support order. Payment of all or part of the arrearage before issuance of the income withholding order shall not prevent issuance of the income withholding order, unless the arrearage is paid in full and the order for support does not include an amount for the current support of a person. No affidavit is required if the court, upon hearing a motion to stay issuance of the income withholding order or otherwise, issues an income withholding order.

(2) In a title IV-D case, the IV-D agency may issue an income withholding order as authorized by K.S.A. 39-7,147, and amendments thereto. Any such income withholding order shall be considered an income withholding order issued pursuant to this act.

(e) (1) An income withholding order shall be directed to any payor of the obligor. Notwithstanding any other requirement of this act as to form or content, any income withholding order prepared in a standard format prescribed by the secretary of social and rehabilitation services shall be deemed to be in compliance with this act.

(2) An income withholding order which does not include a medical withholding order shall require the payor to withhold from any income due, or to become due, to the obligor a specified amount sufficient to satisfy the order of support and to defray any arrearage and shall include notice of and direction to comply with the provisions of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 23-3104 and 23-3105, and amendments thereto.

(3) An income withholding order which consists only of a medical withholding order shall include notice of the medical child support order and shall conform to the requirements of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 23-3116, and amendments thereto. The medical withholding order shall include notice of and direction to comply with the requirements of K.S.A. 2011 Supp. 23-3104, 23-3105, 23-3114 and 23-3117, and amendments thereto.

(4) An income withholding order which includes both a medical withholding order and an income withholding order for cash support shall meet the requirements of paragraphs (2) and (3).

(f) (1) Upon written request and without the requirement of further notice to the obligor, the clerk of the district court shall cause a copy of the income withholding order to be served on the payor only by personal service or registered mail, return receipt requested.

(2) Without the requirement of further notice to the obligor, the court trustee or IV-D agency may cause a copy of any income withholding order to be served on the payor only by personal service or registered mail, return receipt requested or by any alternate method acceptable to the payor. No payor shall be liable to any person solely because of the method of service accepted by the payor.

(3) As used in this section, "copy of the income withholding order" means any document or notice, regardless of format, that advises the payor of the same general duties, requires the same amount to be withheld from income and requires medical withholding to the same extent as the original income withholding order.

(g) An income withholding order shall be binding on any existing or future payor on whom a copy of the order is served and shall require the continued withholding of income from each periodic payment of income until further order of the court or agency that issued the income withholding order. At any time following issuance of an income withholding order, a copy of the income withholding order may be served on any payor without the requirement of further notice to the obligor.

(h) Except as provided in subsection (k) or (l), at any time following entry of an order for support the obligee or public office may serve upon the obligor a written notice of intent to initiate income withholding. If any notice in the court record indicates that title IV-D services are being provided in the case, whether or not the IV-D services include enforcement of current support, the person or public office requesting issuance of the income withholding order shall obtain the consent of the IV-D agency to the terms of the proposed income withholding order.

The notice of intent to initiate income withholding shall be served on the obligor only by personal service or registered mail, return receipt requested. The notice served on the obligor must state: (1) The terms of the order of support and the total arrearage as of the date the notice was prepared; (2) the amount of income that will be withheld, not including premiums to satisfy a medical withholding order; (3) whether a medical withholding order will be included; (4) that the provision for withholding applies to any current or subsequent payor; (5) the procedures available for contesting the withholding and that the only basis for contesting the withholding is a mistake of fact concerning the amount of the support order, the amount of the arrearage, the amount of income to be withheld or the proper identity of the obligor; (6) the period within which the obligor must act to stay issuance of the income withholding order and that failure to take such action within the specified time will result in payors' being ordered to begin withholding; and (7) the action which will be taken if the obligor contests the withholding.

The obligor may, at any time, waive in writing the notice required by this subsection.

(i) On request of an obligor, the court shall issue an income withholding order which shall be honored by a payor regardless of whether there is an arrearage. Nothing in this subsection shall limit the right of the obligee to request modification of the income withholding order.

(j) (1) In a nontitle IV-D case, upon presentation to the court of a written agreement between the parties providing for an alternative arrangement, no income withholding order shall be issued pursuant to subsection (b). In any case, before entry of a new or modified order for support, a party may request that no income withholding order be issued pursuant to subsection (b) if notice of the request has been served on all interested parties and: (A) The party demonstrates, and the court finds, that there is good cause not to require immediate income withholding; or (B) a written agreement among all interested parties provides for an alternative arrangement. If child support and maintenance payments are both made to an obligee by the same obligor, and if the court has determined that good cause has been shown that direct child support payments to the obligee may be made, then the court shall provide for direct maintenance payments to the obligee and no income withholding order shall be issued pursuant to subsection (b). In a title IV-D case, the determination that there is good cause not to require immediate income withholding must include a finding that immediate income withholding would not be in the child's best interests and, if an obligor's existing obligation is being modified, proof of timely payment of previously ordered support.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (j)(1), the court shall issue an income withholding order when an affidavit pursuant to subsection (d) is filed if an arrearage exists in an amount equal to or greater than the amount of support payable for one month.

(3) If a notice pursuant to subsection (h) has been served in a title IV-D case, there is no arrearage or the arrearage is less than the amount of support payable for one month, and the obligor files a motion to stay issuance of the income withholding order based upon the court's previous finding of good cause not to require immediate income withholding pursuant to subsection (j)(1), the obligor must demonstrate the continued existence of good cause. Unless the court again finds that good cause not to require immediate income withholding exists, the court shall issue the income withholding order.

(4) If a notice pursuant to subsection (h) has been served in a title IV-D case, there is no arrearage or the arrearage is less than the amount of support payable for one month, and the obligor files a motion to stay issuance of an income withholding order based upon a previous agreement of the interested parties for an alternative arrangement pursuant to subsection (j)(1), the court shall issue an income withholding order, notwithstanding any previous agreement, if the court finds that:

- (A) The agreement was not in writing;
- (B) the agreement was not approved by all interested parties;
- (C) the terms of the agreement or alternative arrangement are not being met;
- (D) the agreement or alternative arrangement is not in the best interests of the child;

or

(E) the agreement or alternative arrangement places an unnecessary burden upon the obligor, obligee or a public office.
