

2012 Kansas Statutes

19-1216. Records destroyed or made illegible by fire or casualty. This act shall apply to every county in the state, wherein all or any portion of the records in the office of the register of deeds have been or shall hereafter be destroyed or made illegible by fire or other casualty.

History: L. 1951, ch. 236, § 1; April 2.