

2012 Kansas Statutes

76-414. Same; time for inspection; consultations and advice. The professor of dairying shall inspect the herds at each of the institutions at least once in three months, and shall consult and advise with the superintendent in charge as to the best method of improving the herd, handling the milk, the method of feeding, and the kinds of feed.

History: L. 1917, ch. 300, § 3; Feb. 21; R.S. 1923, 76-414.