

2012 Kansas Statutes

76-824. Statutory construction. This act, being necessary for the prosperity and welfare of the state and its inhabitants, shall be liberally construed to effect the purposes thereof. The provisions of this act are severable, and if any of its provisions shall be held unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, the decision of such court shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions. Insofar as the provisions of this act are inconsistent with the provisions of any general or special laws, or parts thereof, the provisions of this act shall be controlling.
