

Journal of the House

FORTY-FIRST DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Friday, March 13, 2015, 8:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Mast in the chair.

The roll was called with 120 members present.

Reps. Ballard, Bridges, Peck and Todd were excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Present later: Rep. Todd.

Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Lord God,
Thank You for this day You have given us.
The last couple of days have been rough.
Many discussions, debates, arguments and agreements have occurred.
Some of our legislators may feel tired, discouraged,
weary, frustrated, and maybe even mad.
I ask that You be especially near to each one today.
There is a big final vote today, Lord.
Your word says—
“If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God,
who gives generously to all without reproach,
and it will be given him.”
I ask today that You give each and everyone YOUR wisdom.
There is another passage that most may be familiar with that says—
“Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding;
in all your ways submit to him,
and he will make your paths straight.”
The Message version of this Scripture words it a bit differently – perhaps more appropriately for us.
“Trust GOD from the bottom of your heart;
don’t try to figure out everything on your own.
Listen for GOD’s voice in everything you do, everywhere you go;
he’s the one who will keep you on track.
Don’t assume that you know it all.”
It is this wisdom for which I pray in Christ’s Name,
Amen.
(James 1:5; Proverbs 3:5-6)

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Whipple.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: This legislation backtracks any progress made last year in addressing the Supreme Court's ruling that school funding be made more equitable. In the long run, this will result in dramatically higher property taxes and major wealth disparities between districts. That is unfair to Kansas schools and bad for the Kansas economy.

Most Kansas districts will be forced to absorb millions in cuts under this proposal, in addition to the millions they have already been forced to endure in recent years. We are cutting funding to our public schools at a time when we should be investing in our children and their futures. It is for these reasons that I am voting no on H Sub for SB 7.

— GAIL FINNEY, VALDENIA WINN, ANNIE TIETZE

MR. SPEAKER: The constitution that I swore to uphold charges our schools with continuous improvement and our legislature with providing suitable provision for the finance of public education. This bill allows for neither. It provides certainty for the legislature by locking down the budget and ignoring the changing needs of our students. However, our public schools face a very uncertain future. I heard from hundreds of my constituents this week - the taxpayers who pay for our schools - and their message is clear: vote no on this bill, fix our revenue problem and adequately fund our schools. I vote NO on H Sub for SB 7. — MELISSA ROOKER, BARBARA BOLLIER, DIANA DIERKS

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on H Sub for SB 7. I have discovered that this bill, on page 52, line 40, obligates the state to pay school districts for virtual students who are not Kansas residents. That troubling fact should have been made clear to the body. What other surprises lurk in the 100 pages of this bill? Let's not pass it to learn what is in it. A bill which directs the expenditure of half of the state general fund merits extensive and careful deliberation. This is much too fast. I vote no on H Sub for SB 7. – DON HINEMAN, RUSS JENNINGS

MR. SPEAKER: I strongly support the re-working of the school finance formula. But I cannot put my name on this bill. The process to create the bill was much too hasty. K-12 is around half of the state's general fund. The Kansas Legislature has one function, and that is to be good, solid, responsible stewards of the taxpayers' money. When handling The People's funds, the legislature should be calm, measured, and should engage all voices in the process. That did not happen with this bill. We can do better than this. I vote no on H Sub for SB 7. – STEPHANIE CLAYTON

MR. SPEAKER: It has taken three years for us to fully comprehend how ill-advised the tax bill of 2012 is. It will take far less time for the Block Grant legislation to be recognized as equally, if not more, irresponsible. K-12 funding will be cut, those districts which have contingency reserve funds will spend them down, property taxes will go up, the rich will get richer and the poor will get poorer. Equitable funding will be a casualty and suitable provision for education funding will be in peril. We will be a greater risk of losing in court. I vote no on H Sub for SB 7. – DON HILL, LINDA GALLAGHER

MR. SPEAKER: I am pleased to support a bill that increases funding for schools and provides the opportunity to create a new school finance formula that is fair, equitable, flexible, and restores local control to the school boards and administrators. We should begin the process immediately. It is unacceptable that we have a finance formula that creates tension between rural and urban, and rich and poor districts. I vote yes on H Sub for SB 7. – MARVIN KLEEB

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on H Sub for SB 7 because, just as the tax bill three years ago benefited the wealthiest Kansans, this bill benefits the wealthiest school districts, at the expense of districts like my own. For this and many other reasons, I vote no on H Sub for SB 7. – JOHN CARMICHAEL

MR. SPEAKER: I voted "NO" on H Sub for SB 7 because I feel it, along with the income tax bill of 2012, will deny schools any opportunity to advance in the education process. The almighty dollar appears to be more important than quality education.

The winners on the vote are the ultra-conservative think tanks and the people they manipulate. The losers are the boys and girls of Kansas. – LARRY HIBBARD

MR. SPEAKER: It is with great certainty that I vote against this bill, H Sub for SB 7, which exacerbates inequalities amongst districts and inadequately funds our public education system. This legislation creates inequalities in schools across the state by pitting poor districts against wealthy districts and urban districts against rural districts. It also caps funding and forces public schools to absorb more cuts at a time when we should be investing more funding in education.

It is time for the Legislature to make fair and adequate funding a priority. The future of Kansas deserves better. — HAROLD LANE, KATHY WOLFE MOORE, PONKA-WE VICTORS, PAM CURTIS, STAN FROWNELTER, BRODERICK HENDERSON, RODERICK HOUSTON, JOHN ALCALA, SYDNEY CARLIN, TOM BURROUGHS, BRANDON WHIPPLE, ED TRIMMER, LOUIS E. RUIZ.

MR. SPEAKER: Fairness should be the center piece of any legislation. H Sub for SB 7 doesn't fix anything but rather compounds the inequity. In fact by its nature H Sub for SB 7 creates immediate inequity, an immediate judicial void, adds to our budget shortfall and creates immediate uncertainty for those school districts which have fluctuating enrollment.

We are only in this uncomfortable position when our leaders pick a position which is at odds with our constituents. And now, once again, just like when the bankrupting 2012 tax bill was shoved upon this body, they are saying "Trust Me." Vote no and be with your constituents. — TOM MOXLEY

MR. SPEAKER: I'm voting against H Sub for SB 7 because it ignores the needs of our local school districts and Kansas students. It inadequately funds public education, and as a result inflicts untold damage to an entire generation of Kansans. Our schools are already underfunded, and this bill only exacerbates the problem.

This bill freezes funding to public schools and forces schools to make cuts to cover the cost. Schools are still operating at recession-era levels of funding. Parents and educators who have been begging the Legislature to restore school funding for the last four years will be forced to wait to get any more dollars into the classroom. — JOHN WILSON, NANCY LUSK

MR. SPEAKER: The school finance formula in Kansas is broken and dysfunctional. It has not served the needs of our students, schools, or taxpayers for many years. H Sub for SB 7 paves the way for the construction of a new, modern school finance formula. It restores local control and certainty to education and will empower communities to do what is best for their schools. That's why I vote yes on H Sub for SB 7. — WILLIE DOVE, STEVEN ANTHIMIDES, KEITH ESAU, KRISTEY WILLIAMS, WILL CARPENTER, KEVIN JONES, TONY BARTON, LES MASON, JOHN WHITMER, MARC RHOADES, MARK KAHRS, JOSEPH SCAPA

MR. SPEAKER: Rural schools that are the lifeblood of their community have been treated unfairly by the current school finance formula. The old formula classifies rural schools as wealthy while categorizing bigger schools with more population as impoverished. This bill gives rural schools the authority and the flexibility to meet the unique needs of areas with declining populations and gives local school boards certainty in their budgets. It provides a bridge to a new funding formula that will help equip rural schools with the tools they need to help students succeed. That's why I vote YES on H Sub for SB 7. — KYLE HOFFMAN, RON RYCKMAN, JOE SEIWERT, SHARON SCHWARTZ, SUE BOLDRÁ, CHARLES SMITH, TRAVIS COUTURE-LOVELADY, JACK THIMESCH, BUD ESTES, JOHN BARKER, RANDY GARBER

MR. SPEAKER: The current school finance formula propagates unintended consequences harmful to our students: over 10 years of lawsuits, a choice costing millions that could have been better spent in the classroom; historically higher levels of K-12 spending every year without better student outcomes; soaring administrative costs while teachers and pupils do without; and hundreds of millions of appropriated taxpayers' dollars remaining unspent in segregated "silos." So the formula must go.

Our priority is and should always be our children and the classrooms where they learn, and more local control for their schools. This bill accomplishes that. I enthusiastically vote "Aye" on H Sub for SB 7. -- JOHN RUBIN

MR. SPEAKER: Change is required to end years-long litigation over a much-debated formula that can be manipulated and is not equally applied. Being mired in the destructive diversion of litigation and thus focused on quantity over quality takes energy, creativity and devotion away from educational opportunity and thwarts an innovative fast-adapting system designed for ALL students.

Around 40,000 students are relegated to the lowest-performing schools in our state. The formula and system have failed them. Through maximum fiscal freedom and increased local oversight, we step toward greater innovation and equality in education for all students. I vote yes on H Sub for SB 7. -- KASHA KELLEY

MR. SPEAKER: The children are the real winners today. I vote yes on H Sub for SB 7. -- RAY MERRICK
