Prayer by Chaplain Brubaker:

Lord God, thank You for watching over us and for this, another beautiful day of Your creation.

Lord, I am beginning to think that my prayers have lost their credibility seeing that we are still here another day. But in all my years of talking to You, there are two major things I have learned: first, sometimes You say “yes,” sometimes You say “no,” but many times You say “wait.” We may not like it nor understand it, but it appears You are saying “wait” right now.

The second thing I have learned is that Your timetable and ours are never the same. Apparently that seems to be the case here. Your Word says that with You, “A day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like a day.” To be honest, this is a scary thought! But it continues to say that “the Lord is not slow in keeping his promise, as some understand slowness... He is giving everyone space and time to change.”

So, here we are another day, another—well, I am not sure there is another dollar—but I still hold claim to Your promises that You will guide them in the steps that they should take.

I humbly ask for this guidance in Christ’s Name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Pauls.
