

2016 Kansas Statutes

65-183. Same; report by physicians to secretary. Every physician having knowledge of a case of congenital hypothyroidism, galactosemia or phenylketonuria and other genetic diseases as may be detected with tests given pursuant to this act in one of such physician's own patients shall report the case to the secretary of health and environment on forms provided by the secretary.

History: L. 1965, ch. 388, § 4; L. 1974, ch. 352, § 51; L. 1977, ch. 213, § 3; L. 1984, ch. 223, § 3; L. 1994, ch. 262, § 6; July 1.